THE INCLUSIVE CLASSROOM

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Teachers of Year 3 upwards and leaders seeking to increase understanding of EDI and its impact on school communities.

THURSDAY 6TH FEBRUARY 2025

4.00PM - 6.30PM

Schools have a vital role in building understanding of diversity and inclusion for pupils and staff. This wide-ranging INSET provides overviews of legislation around discrimination, focusing on The Equality Act (2010) and the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED), and offers practical tips on building an inclusive culture in schools.

INSET Outline

The Inclusive Classroom: Setting the Scene

- What do we mean by the terms diversity, equality and inclusion?
- What are the relevant legal frameworks?
- Creating the right conditions – doing the preparation
- Identifying issues, challenges and opportunities within our teaching context
- Case study exploration.

Creating an Inclusive Classroom

- Understanding different models of inclusive learning
- Developing an awareness of personal biases including unconscious biases
- Identifying areas of focus when considering inclusivity (rules, activity, people, power)
- Whose curriculum is it anyway? Potential tensions explored in relation to different stakeholders.

Inclusive Teaching and Learning

- Applying understanding of equity, equality and adaption to classroom practice
- Identifying some practical inclusive teaching strategies in relation to sample protected characteristics
- Identifying development priorities.
