ENGLISH REFRESHER

WEBINAR FOR TEACHERS

OF YEARS 7 AND 8

For Heads of Departments and Years 7 and 8 English Teachers.

This 90 minute webinar is designed for English teachers and will provide an opportunity for airing and sharing ideas for English lessons.

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 11TH 2021

4.00 PM TO 5.30 PM

Speaker: Sarah North

The webinar will be led by experienced English teacher and private tutor, Sarah North, member of the ISEB 13+ Common Entrance and CASE setting team for English and team leader for the 11+ Common Entrance setting team. Sarah is also a member of the ISEB's Academic Committee Team for Humanities and the English Curriculum Consultation Group. She is author of the book, 'Grammatix', recently published by Jonathan Catt and originally devised as a complete grammar teaching resource to be shared with KS2 and KS3 English teachers in her department as they prepare pupils for pre-tests, CE and CASE.

Overview

In this valuable, practical and stimulating webinar Sarah will share approaches she takes to:

- Analysing texts, including drama, keeping in focus the ISEB goals
- class readers
- Reading Certificate.

Sarah will explore a range of activities and approaches that help develop pupils' analysis and engagement in the classroom.

Throughout the webinar there will be opportunities for interaction so that delegates can share ideas or voice concerns.

Details

The webinar will be delivered via Zoom. Delegates can either use their own webcams/microphones to ask questions or they can do so via a chat box.
