Making Lesson Observations Beneficial

Teacher appraisal and capability place effective and accurate observations of teaching and learning at the heart of the process of overall improvement in both teacher and pupil performance and progress. This course will explore practical strategies to ensure rigorous and robust lesson observations are at the centre of any school performance management processes; and highly effective lesson observation is used to inform and improve outstanding learning and teaching.

INSET Outline

Conducting a Meaningful Lesson Observation

- The top 10 pitfalls to AVOID when observing lessons.
- Analysis of video material of a range of teaching practice
- Are the pupils learning anything and how do you know?
- Tips for measuring progress in the short and longer term
- How to focus on developmental lesson observations

Strategies to use feedback and coaching to develop the quality of teaching and improve pupil outcomes.

Embed a formative approach to lesson observations through:

- Coaching and mentoring programmes
- Strategies for highly effective Staff CPD
- Peer observation and Lesson Study
- Action Research Projects
- Meaningful Appraisal processes
