Consistently Great Teaching and Learning for ISI

Understanding Great Teaching & how to secure consistency across the Quality of Education Standard

TARGET AUDIENCE: Teachers of Year 3 and above would benefit from this course, but it is particularly suited to middle and senior leaders

TUESDAY 1ST OCTOBER 2024

4.00PM TO 6.30PM

- Can you demonstrate how teaching is making an impact on pupil wellbeing in your school?
- Are you clear on what ISI Inspectors are looking for in the F23 Routine inspections?
- Do teachers show a good understanding of the aptitudes, needs and prior attainment of all pupils?
- Are pupils of all abilities engaged, making progress and challenged in lessons?

The answers to these questions are developed in full on this essential course for preparing for an ISI Routine Inspection. The training dispels misconceptions, clarifies the criteria and shares the theory and research behind the ISI approach. The webinar sets out what high quality teaching looks like and how it can be identified and strengthened for consistent delivery throughout the school.

INSET Outline

- The inspectors' view: What are they looking for?
- Progress, planning and feedback: The expectations and requirements.
- What great teaching looks like & strategies to apply this to every classroom
- A teacher's toolkit of practical classroom strategies to improve teaching, learning and assessment
- How to show a good understanding of the aptitudes, needs and prior attainment of all pupils (from SEND to the more able)
- How ISI inspections are structured.
- The F23 ISI framework and an in depth look at the Quality of Education Standard ISSR
- How teaching can have an impact on pupil wellbeing in your school
